

Results of the Idaho Cycling Enthusiasts Club Time Trial series in Idaho Falls - May 8

Excellent weather greeted the first Idaho Cycling Enthusiasts-Idaho Falls time trial. Riders responded to the good weather and posted many fast times and close finishes. Good weather helped the first four riders do the 10 miles in less than 25 minutes.

The best finisher last year also grabbed first place this time--Gary Azavedo came in with a time of 23:34. He was followed closely for second and third by Cole Osterhout and Sal Mascarenas.

The next time trial is Tuesday, May 22, with the first rider leaving at 6:30 p.m. You are encouraged to be there around 6 p.m. to register, warm up well, and avoid the congestion near the start time.

(Place, Name, Time, Avg Speed)

1. Gary Azavedo, 0:23:34, 25.46
2. Cole Osterhout, 0:23:55, 25.09
3. Sal Mascarenas, 0:24:30, 24.49
4. Mike Sackley, 0:24:37, 24.37
5. Alan Crockett, 0:25:12, 23.81
6. Shane Watt, 0:25:51, 23.21
7. Lyle Castle, 0:26:00, 23.08
8. Joel Case, 0:26:19, 22.80
9. Greg Bala 0:26:21, 22.77
10. Jim Fraser, 0:26:35, 22.57
11. Julie Geng, 0:29:04, 20.64
12. Dave Heath, 0:29:29, 20.35
13. Jacie Coleman, 0:29:31, 20.33
10. Jeff Coward, 0:30:50, 19.46