

THE ROB VAN KIRK 2010 JUNIOR AND U-23 SCHOLARSHIP

(FINANCIAL SUPPORT PROVIDED BY IDAHO KIDNEY INSTITUTE AND SOUTHEAST IDAHO GASTROENTEROLOGY)

The mission of Idaho Cycling Enthusiasts (ICE) is to encourage physical activity through bike racing and community service. The goal of the RVK Junior Scholarship is to lessen the financial burden on junior and U-23 athletes by providing financial assistance. The goal of the scholarship is to encourage healthy competition, self-discipline, sportsmanship and leadership within cycling.

Under the RVK Junior Scholarship, ICE will provide support for several local young riders in the form of:

- Idaho Cycling JERSEY and SHORTS
- Re-imbusement of annual USCF license.
- Free entry in to all ICE events.

To apply for the RVK Junior Scholarship, please email a short essay (3/4 of a page) to Sam Krieg at sam@kriegcycling.com and make sure you include:

- ✓ Your personal goals and ambitions that involve cycling
- ✓ Your short-term and long-term goals.
- ✓ Some ideas about how the scholarship will help you achieve both your short- and long-term goals.
- ✓ Include your past cycling results and 2010 race schedule
- ✓ Also include a photograph we can post on the ICE website.

The deadline for applications for the 2010 season is April 1, 2010. Applications received after that point will not be accepted. Applicants will be notified by April 15, 2010 about their award.
